

---

Contents

---

List of Figures

List of Tables

Preface

|   |            |
|---|------------|
| 1. The Geographical Basis of Organisation    | 1   |
| The Development of NHS Organisation                 |            |
| Dislocations in the System                          |            |
| 2. Regional Variations in Need and Provision | 20  |
| Needs, Demands, Supply and Use                      |            |
| Geographical Redistribution                         |            |
| 3. The Location of Primary Care              | 53  |
| General Medical Practitioners                       |            |
| Community Nurses                                    |            |
| Health Centres                                      |            |
| Dental, Ophthalmic and Pharmaceutical Services      |            |
| Other Primary Health Services                       |            |
| 4. The Location of Hospitals                 | 96  |
| Policies and Trends                                 |            |
| Centralisation versus Dispersal                     |            |
| Regional Disparities                                |            |
| 5. Transport to Health Services              | 132 |
| Personal Mobility                                   |            |
| Voluntary Transport Schemes                         |            |
| The Ambulance Service                               |            |
| 6. Health Care in Rural Areas                | 156 |
| Effects of Inaccessibility                          |            |
| Isolated Rural Areas                                |            |
| Policy Options                                      |            |
| 7. Health Care in the Inner City             | 185 |
| Characteristics of Inner-city Populations           |            |
| The Acheson Report                                  |            |
| Conditions outside London                           |            |
| Policy Issues                                       |            |

Rational Proposals for Change - Towards Geographical Equity

|                   |     |
|-------------------|-----|
| References | 241 |
| Index      | 255 |