

Contents

1	An Introduction to the Tropical Pacific and Types of Pacific Islands	1
1.1	The Tropical Pacific Ocean	2
	Rainfall in the Tropical Pacific	2
	El Niño and la Niña and their Effects on Pacific Island Climate	3
	Storms and Cyclones	6
1.2	The Tropical Pacific: How Many and What Kind of Islands	8
	High Islands	11
	Low Islands	14
1.3	Coral Reefs in the Pacific	15
	Charles Darwin and the Evolution of Atolls	22
	Atoll Lagoons	27
	Uplifted and Emergent Atolls and Islands	30
	Coral Reef Zones	31
	The Reef Rim and Coral Islands	33
	References	37
2	Populating the Pacific	39
2.1	The Original Migrants and Wallacea	39
2.2	Linguistics and Migration Patterns	41
2.3	The Lapita Culture	43
	Shifting Cultivation in the Western Pacific	44
	The Evolution of Naval Architecture	45
	Expansion into the Central and Eastern Pacific	46
	The Lapita and the Plight of Native Birds	48
2.4	Characteristics of Melanesia, Polynesia and Micronesia	49
	References	55

3	European Exploration of the Pacific During the Age of Discovery	57
3.1	The Portuguese, the Spice Trade and the Prelude to Pacific Exploration	57
3.2	Magellan's Pacific Odyssey	62
3.3	The Spanish and the Pacific Voyages of Pedro Fernandez de Quirós	63
	La Primera y Segunda Introducción	63
	The Third and Final Voyage	66
	A First Sighting of Islands	68
	References	76
4	Import, Barter and Trade, and the Natural Resources of the Pacific Islands	77
4.1	Domestic Animals and Plants	77
	Chickens	78
	Dogs	78
	Pigs	79
	Breadfruit	81
	Taro and Other Root Vegetables	81
4.2	Marine Resources	90
	Fishing Techniques	90
4.3	The Tahitian Exchange	91
	The European Introduction	91
	The Salt Pork Trade	93
	The Export of Breadfruit	95
	The Practice and Influence of Whaling	96
4.4	Trade with China	98
	Tea for Sandalwood	98
	Bêche-de-Mer	99
	Pearls and Pearl Oysters	101
4.5	Exotic and Invasive Species	103
	Cats and Rats	104
	Arboreal Snakes	105
	Exotic Ants, Plants and Plagues	107
	References	108
5	The Cultural and Political Impact of Missionaries and Foreign Hegemony in the Pacific Islands	111
5.1	The Missionary Prelude: Polynesian Society and the Religious Pantheon	113
	Human Sacrifice	114
	Sexuality	115
	The Tattoo	116
	Infanticide	116

5.2	The Arrival of The London Missionary Society in Tahiti	117
5.3	How the Kingdom of Tahiti Became French	121
5.4	The Misadventures of Missionaries in Melanesia	123
5.5	American Business and British Missionary Influences in Fiji	125
	Cotton, Sugar Cane, and Blackbirding	126
5.6	The Kingdom of Hawaii and How it Became American Territory	128
5.7	Religious Competition on Pacific Islands	129
	References	131
6	Pacific Islands and the Politics of Fertilizer	133
6.1	Seabirds and Guano	133
	Guano From Peru: Not Much of It for You	136
6.2	The Guano Islands Act	138
6.3	From Guano to Coconuts	143
6.4	Guano and the Slave and Coolie Trade	145
6.5	The Nitrogen Wars and the End of the Guano Trade	147
6.6	Superphosphate and the Pacific Islands	150
	Nauru Island, a Cautionary Tale	151
	References	154
7	Domination of Pacific Islands in War and in the Nuclear Age	157
7.1	Changes Before and After WWI	157
7.2	The Militarization of the Pacific Islands	159
7.3	Case Examples of Island Alteration: Midway, Palmyra and Johnston Atolls	161
7.4	American Nuclear Tests in the Marshall Islands	166
	Fission and Fusion Bombs	169
7.5	British and French Nuclear Tests and the Fallout Therefrom	173
7.6	The Postwar Period of Decolonization and Independence	175
7.7	Dependency, Unemployment, Emigration, and an Homage to Spam	177
	References	178
8	Compound Issues of Global Warming on the High and Low Islands of the Tropical Pacific	181
8.1	Climate Change and the Atmosphere	181
8.2	High Island Environments	186
	The Terrestrial Realm of New Guinea and Other Western Pacific Islands	186
	Natural Resources and their Extraction	187
8.3	Effects of Climate Change on High Islands	190
	Papua New Guinea	190
	The High Islands of Hawaii	191

	Climate Change and Coral Reefs	195
8.5	Canaries in the Coalmine	196
	The Marine Realms of Papua New Guinea and Kiribati	198
8.6	Papua New Guinea	199
	The Exclusive Economic Zone and the PNG Tuna Fishery	199
	Marine Protected Areas in Papua New Guinea	200
	Climate Change and Management of Marine Resources in PNG and Kiribati	202
	References	203
		205
Index		209