

Contents

List of Figures x
List of Tables xv
Acknowledgements xvi

Introduction 1

Green wedge: Definitions 2
Interdisciplinarity, locality, temporality and scale 3
The structure 4
Methods and sources 6

PART ONE Green Wedges in History 7

1 Urban Planning with Nature 9

The Enlightenment and the pursuit of nature 10
The Industrial Revolution and the disintegration of open spaces 12
The rise of town planning 17
Ring vs radial growth 18
Park systems 21

2 The Emergence and Diffusion of the Green Wedge Idea 27

Radial planning, radial parks and green wedges 27
Intrinsic opposition: Belts vs wedges 30
Opposition resolved: Belts and wedges as elements of the same park system 44
The socialist city 57

- 3 Towards a Bright Future: Green Wedge Visions for the Post-war Period 67
- London: The green wedge metropolis 67
 - New towns and green spaces 89
 - Planning new beginnings 95
- 4 Polycentrism and Regional Planning 107
- Organizing the territory 107
 - The corridor-wedge model 114
 - The Green Heart and green wedges of Randstad in the Netherlands 124
- PART TWO Green Wedges Today 131
- 5 Green Spaces, Networks and Contemporary Challenges 133
- The benefits of green spaces 133
 - The birth of urban design and the 'Star City' 137
 - Green infrastructure 140
 - Landscape Ecology 142
 - Landscape Urbanism 143
 - Sustainability and resilience in face of climate change 144
- 6 Towards Sustainable and Resilient City-regions 149
- Stockholm: Blue and green wedges 149
 - The Copenhagen Finger Plan: The development of a model 166
 - The green fingers of Helsinki 174
 - Randstad: From Green Heart to Green-Blue Delta 182
 - Melbourne towards 2030 186
 - Freiburg: The green wedge and the mountain-valley systems 189
- 7 Green Wedges: From the City-region to the Neighbourhood 195
- Hamburg green network plan 195
 - The Raggi Verdi of Milan 198
 - Songzhuang Arts and Agriculture city: A new form of urban-rural relationship 202
 - Green wedges at multiple scales: Viikki 204

CONTENTS

ix

Rieselfeld 207

Vauban 210

The neighbourhood scale: Dunsfold Park, UK 212

The green wedge as a typology: La Sagrera Linear Park 213

Green Wedge Urbanism: Past, Present and Future 217

The green wedge idea: From the city scale to the polycentric region 217

Towards a theory of green wedge urbanism 220

Final words 226

Notes 229

Bibliography 259

Index 279